

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Thondaimanpatti Village - A Historical and Political Socio-Economic Perspective

Objective of the study

- To trace the History of village.
- To analyze the working of the village Panchayat and Gram Sabha at Thondaimanpatti
- To find out the various Government schemes implemented in this village.
- To find out to what extent these schemes have improved the condition of people.
- To know the social condition of the village.
- To understand the economic condition of the village
- To study the contribution of Russ Foundation in the development of the village.

Outcome:

- Communal harmony is visible in this village.
- This village has poor sanitary facility.
- Women enjoy respectable status in the society and they also have economic liberty.
- Russ foundation has contributed to development of public awareness, improved the economic condition and to enhance

Planning & implementation:

The Department of History is planning to develop sanitation facility in this village in collaboration of the village Panchayat and other government agencies.

