

A Talk on American -Japanese Culture

The PG Department and Research Centre of English organised “A Talk on American-Japanese Culture on 24.02.2023. Ms. Joanna, whose parents had served as American missionaries in India and her husband, Shigeto Itoh, were the speakers. Ms. Joanna and her husband spoke about the cultural differences between Japan and the United States by sharing a few anecdotes. There was a brief interaction between the audience and the speakers after the programme.
